

A little registration can avoid a lot of litigation.

- Canada is a large market just next door.
- It is inexpensive to apply for a Canadian trademark.
- It is very expensive to re-brand or acquire trademark rights if someone else has acquired prior rights in your trademark in Canada.

$950

$950: The initial cost to file one Canadian trademark application, inclusive of our fees and the government fees for one class. Each additional class of products/services are $150.

trademark use

No need to have use in Canada prior to registration.

6 months

6 months: The deadline for claiming priority in Canada from a trademark application filed in the United States.